If anyone else has a Kuruma, come in. Fight the Lost, but make sure you don't destroy the bikes in the process. Watch out for waves of enemies who will try to stop you. Mission #3 Bring silent weapons to the Dingy and use stealth to eliminate enemies in the trailer park. Mission #4 While one group takes care of the associate, the others must kill the lawyers and take their statement. Setting Yourself to Passive If the inevitable happens, and someone bites the dust, you can always try again from the last checkpoint, without having to start all over again. And you can always invite the same trio for more. Communicating with teammates will make robbery much easier, as well as understanding their strengths and weaknesses and being prepared with good equipment such as silencers and bulletproof armor. Mission number one: one team will go by plane and another in the water. Meanwhile, the hacker should go through the next door, after which Demolitions will go through the next door. The other group must take and leave Rashkovsky's helmet. The setups themselves tend to be simpler, and are not particularly rewarding to complete, while the finale is the real attraction. You're gonna need photos of all the truck plates, then Lester's gonna tell you which ones to steal. In addition to splitting winnings, we recommend that you calculate in advance the role each player will play, as explained below when we get to the set-up missions. You might also want to ride your bikes or a car to the Vinewood Police Department to grab the helicopter on the roof. You'll have an idea of what to expect in terms of mechanics and what encounters you'll face, so plan accordingly. Two players should take the truck, and the other two should take a rebel. General tips for robberies Get a As a guest of the robbery, you have quite a few open settings for yourself. Mission #3 Go to Vinewood as two teams: one transporter and three Stealing the bikes and drive to the fall point, avoiding the road blocks of the Lost and fighting them along the way. Go to the bank and enter. A successful robbery is running. Thefts involve more missions. Explosives can be attractive, but could cause problems due to the close range. Missions # 1â, 2 & 3 Group must fight the vagos at the airport so that a pilot can steal a velum and bring it to you. While you are indoors (or if you are the kind of boy who tears toilet paper with one hand, while you are driving), you can pull up the menu to munch a little health in your system, equip more armor, and to buy Multiple ammunition. This mission is only available if you hosted both the Heecee job that The Prison Break, or if you are playing with a guest who has. When GTA Online has been launched, you have unlocked opposing modes by completing theft. Drive the boat up to the goal of completing the final Heist. It is possible that teams will be replenished if someone leaves between missions, however a full team of four is always required for all Heist missions. You can either choose stealth or a head-on approach. They halve all damage received, regardless where it's coming from, and this effect does not degrade or run out. Just keep sprinting and hammer that jump button like there is no tomorrow (be mindful of ledges though, or there's Really won't be a tomorrow for your character). Heists are broken down into set-up missions and the finale. Once you have your vehicle of choice, don't follow the waypoints! Instead, follow the left highway until you reach the cliff, and then parachute (or drive, if you understand the path well enough) to the boat down below. Most experienced players have their own preferred routes to follow, and these often yield better results. Now, we're not suggesting you stand around mid-gunfight to fiddle with a menu. The UI indicates whether police can actively see you with solid wanted stars, while flashing wanted stars show that though you are still being pursued, you are hidden. After that, both players should take the Kuruma toward Fort Zancudo. When that door opens, one of the Crowd Control players needs to head to the back room to intimidate the tellers and kill any security that arrives. While one player gets the Hydra, the others should pilot jets to help out. Tip: as you leave the clubhouse, your map will prompt you to turn right. Collect all of the packages and get back to land through the tunnels, and head to the last objective. They are the game's stand-in for end-content, being among the most difficult and most lucrative activities you can do. The ability to split the payout means the Heist Leader can earn a lot of money. Beyond a grasp of how the game works, you'll need to be able to cooperate with your team and listen to what everyone is saying. You must get the Hydra back to your rendezvous point. point.
